Area residents among DACC 2016 graduating class

DANVILLE—Danville Area Community College conferred degrees and certificates during Commencement exercises on May 20 in Mary Miller Gymnasium. Nearly 200 graduates participated, while more than 500 degrees and certificates will be conferred overall.

Former DACC student Daniel J. Miller, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Management and Planning in the Office of Post-secondary Education for the US Department of Education, was the Commencement speaker.

Students with a cumulative grade-point average of 4.0 graduated with the designation summa cum laude. Four students were so designated: Lexi Sliva of Georgetown, Tracy Sauls of Oakwood, Ashley Malone of Chrisman, and Baylee Shepherd, Westville.

Graduates of distinction were recognized during the Commencement. In addition to the summa cum laude candidates, those with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.750-3.999 graduated with the designation magna cum laude; and those with a cumulative grade-point average of 3.50-3.749 graduated with the designation cum laude. Students' ability to be recognized at the graduation ceremony is based on the cumulative grade-point average calculated at the end of the fall semester prior to the spring ceremony.
