Feed My Lambs starts 8th year

Feed My Lambs Summer Lunch Program begins its eighth summer at the Hoopeston First United Methodist Church (403 E. Main St.) this week.

Pre-K through eighth grade Hoopeston Area students who qualify for free or reduced lunches during the school year are encouraged to receive a free sack lunch Monday through Friday at the church's fellowship hall beginning Tuesday, May 31. Lunches will be served from 11 am to noon daily, and can be picked up and taken or enjoyed in the air-conditioned fellowship hall.

Please bring proof of age per student (ex., report card, birth certificate) and contact information prior to receiving first lunch. The community's continued generosity is very much appreciated as we look toward another summer of serving over 100 students daily.

Please call 217-218-6738 for any questions or information on how to volunteer.
