From the Blotter

Misty R. Jerz, 19, of Coal City, was arrested at 5:52 a.m. Tuesday in the 700 block of North Market after police received a call about a driver slumped over the wheel in the middle of the road by Floral Hill Cemetery. When police went to check on the report, the driver of the green Dodge took off southbound on Market and allegedly was weaving across the road before stopping.

Jerz was charged with possession of a controlled substance and improper lane usage and was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Police are investing a report made at 7:10 a.m. Tuesday that someone spray painted graffiti on the walls and ground of the Lions Club shelter at McFerrer Park.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 10:46 a.m. Tuesday at First Farmers Bank & Trust parking lot, 901 S. Dixie Hwy. Police said William

I've been workin' on the railroad

CSX Railroad men and machines work Wednesday to fix the Lincoln Street crossing in Hoopeston. The crossings at Main, Penn, Lincoln and Maple were closed to traffic Wednesday, allowing cross town traffic on Rt. 9 and Thompson. Those crossings are expected to be repaired when work on the others is completed.
