Don Schumacher thanks fire department for quick action

Hoopeston Fire Department's quick action is being credited with saving Schumacher Electric from what could have been catastrophic damage.

Firemen were called at 6 p.m. June 19 to Schumacher's, 1025 E. Thompson, for thick smoke coming from the building. Firefighters were able to extinguish the blaze in about a half hour, said Fire Chief Joel Bird.

On Wednesday, Schumacher CEO Don Schumacher was in Hoopeston to say thank you to the department and present Bird with a token of appreciation.

Gathering at Schumacher's, in front of many employees, the company founder presented Bird with a check and taking care of this," he said to Bird and fellow firemen Josh Miller and Ryan Tyler.

Bird, visibly moved by the gesture, told Schumacher that the men of the department "do this to serve the community" and thanked Schumacher for working with the department, allowing firemen to previously walk through the plant to familiarize themselves with it in case of a fire.

The cause of the fire was a short in the building's electrical room, Bird said.

Schumacher Electric currently has 36 employees at its Hoopeston facility and serves as the distribution hub of its battery charger business.
