DACC-Hoopeston offers twist on College for Kids program

For several years, Danville Area Community College has offered its College for Kids program. With the opening of the DACC Higher Learning Center in Hoopeston, College for Kids was made an opportunity for more youngsters.

Now DACC-Hoopeston is putting a twist on the popular program with College for BIG Kids.

Billed as being for kids ages 18-99, College for Big Kids will be held Saturday, Sept. 17 at the DACC Higher Learning Center-Hoopeston.

Participants may choose one of the many courses offered or spend the whole day in classes that include:

- 9 a.m.-noon
- Green Thumbs: Learn about herbs, fairy gardens, flowers and trees.
- Hoopeston Animal Shelter/Animal Rescue: learn about animal rescue.
- LEGO Robotics: build your own robot from LEGOs.
- Story Tellers: create and illustrate your own story. 1-4 p.m.
- Amazing Field Trips: sit back and get ready for amazing field trips.

- Creative Drawing: create your own works of art.
- How to Survive a Zombie Apocalypse
- Welcome to Japan: learn the customs and cultures of Japan.

Cost is $20 for one class or $40 for all day, which includes lunch. Registration deadline is September 12.

For more information, call DACC Higher Learning Center at (217) 283-4170.

Hoopeston cross country races to 50th anniversary reunion

Cross country turns 50 this year at Hoopeston Area High School - and all its previous iterations - and a reunion is being organized to celebrate the milestone.

The reunion is for all generations of runners over the 50-year span and will be held Labor Day weekend. Current and former cross country runners may choose to participate in the Bill Orr Memorial 5K. XC members will also take part in the National Sweetcorn Festival Grand Parade, take a tour of the school and attend a meet and greet to be held at Fast Lanes.

T-shirts are available for purchase to mark the occasion.

Anyone interested in participating, including family and friend of Hoopeston XC, are also welcome to attend.

Those interested need to contact Stipp at Stipp-pre@hoopeston.k12.il.us or Richard.stipp@gmail.com with the number who will be in their party. Reservations are due by August 19.

All coaches of the XC program will return for the event: Quentin Ryder, Jane Bray (Comrie) and Stipp.
