A Visit

By BERTHA PARSONS

How often have you looked forward to or waited patiently for your grandchildren to come for a visit? What about your best friend who just called to tell you that they would like to visit tomorrow? What joy and happiness fills your heart and mind. Just knowing someone cares enough to visit you! Sure, a visit from family or friends is precious and I count them as a blessing. What-ever would we do without visits?

Now let's talk about another kind of visit. A visit to a shut-in or a stranger because they have no family and are alone. I know one is never sure what to say, when to go or even if they want a visit? These are very good questions with all the same answer. Yes. Yes and Yes they want a visit, they need a visit. You will make a difference.

Perhaps you have no way to go in person and visit. No problem, use the phone and make it a "phone call" visit. If you are going in person, maybe call and check for the best time.

Do you think your life is missing something? Are you looking for that pot of gold at the end of the rainbow? Have you been feeling down in the dumps and blue? There is nothing better, I promise, that will make you feel so happy as a visit. If you are looking for a way to be happier and see smiling faces, then a visit will make you feel happy with a big smile on your face.

You make my life happy and sparkly. Life is what we decide to make it and my plan for us (you and me) is to make visiting family, friends or new friends a way of life.

Here's a challenge to each of you. In the next two weeks make a visit. You choose the kind: in person, on the phone or a card/letter. Tell me how the visit made you feel. E-mail me at bparsons1963@mail.com or send a note to Just the Facts Attn: Bertha Parsons P.O Box 441 Hoopeston, IL 60942.
