April's Learn & Lead Academy to sponsor color run/walk

A color run/walk will be held Saturday at McFerren Park as a scholarship fundraiser for Learn & Lead Academy of Hoopeston.

Registration for the race/walk will be held from 8-10 a.m. at McFerren Park. Entry fee is $5 per person; $20 for a group of four; $25 for six; $30 for a seven-member group and $35 for eight or more.

The event will begin at 10:30 a.m. and will include five paint stations and one bubble station to run/walk through. This is not a timed event so participants may run or walk at their own pace.

All children will receive medals and event pictures will be taken.

Additionally, there will be raffle prizes, a bounce house and games.

All ages are welcome to participate and strollers are welcome. No pets are allowed.

The academy, owned and operated by April Jones, is a

County candidates' forum tonight

A candidate forum for the November 8 election will be held from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Monday at the Bremer Theater on the DACC campus. It is open to the public.

Candidates for contested county races participating include Linda Lucas-Anstey and Bill Wright for auditor; Steve Cornett and Jane McFadden for coroner; and Michael Madigan and Scott Bennett for Illinois District 52 senator. Sen. Mark Kirk and challenger Rep. Tammy Duckworth have also been invited.

The audience will be able to submit written questions before and during the forum and speak with candidates afterwards. Sue Stine, Vermilion county Treasurer, will moderate. Co-chairs are Marilyn Satterwhite and Nancy Boesdorfer. Sponsors are Business Women of Vermilion County, DACC Annuitants Association, Danville Public Library and Executive Club.
