Free CPR, first aid training coming to DACC Hoopeston

In between stuffing the Thanksgiving turkey and wrapping the Christmas gifts, area residents will have a chance to learn some lifesaving skills.

A free CPR/first aid class will be held Monday, Dec. 5 at the DACC Higher Learning Center, 847 E Orange, Hoopeston.

The class is open to those ages 14 and older. Eight students must register for the class to be held.

CPR for victims of all ages, as well as how to assist in a choking situation or use and automatic external defibrillator (AED) will be taught from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The second session, on first aid, will be held from 1-4 p.m. and will include instruction on the principles of providing first aid, how to protect the victim and rescuer how to assess the victim and what to do after the emergency.

Each successfully completed class comes with an American HeartSaver Certification card.

To register, visit the DACC Higher Learning Center.

From the Blotter

A 17-year-old Danville girl was arrested after a 21-year-old Hoopeston woman alleged the girl damaged her door.

The girl was charged with criminal damage to state supported property after the woman reported at 12:39 a.m. Monday that the girl damaged the door to the woman's apartment in the 500 block of South Sixth Ave.

The girl was released to a guardian.

A 30-year-old Sidell man reported at 4:12 p.m. Monday that a garage in the 300 block of West Maple had been gone through and items taken without permission.

THE NEWS-GAZETTE

Manion has long record of service

I would like to remind Vermilion County voters that on November 8, we will be voting on members for the Vermilion County Board. I urge you to consider voting for my friend, Paul Manion.

I was a client of Mr. Manion long before I moved to Hoopeston and found his common-sense approach to solving problems most helpful and his honesty and integrity to be above reproach.

My late husband, William DeWitt, served the city as mayor and during his term, Manion was the city attorney. He proved to be invaluable in making suggestions that saved the city a great deal of money. He was also readily available when my husband needed his help.

Manion has been quality servant

When I first started at the Vermilion County State's Attorney's office, I met a man who freely helped a young attorney with advice, lasting my entire career. This man was Paul Manion. He was smart, disciplined and eager to help. Subsequently, I became his law partner, where he showed excellent financial abilities which helped to ensure success for the firm.

I feel Manion would make a superb county board member to represent northern Vermilion County. He would be hard-working and fiscally responsible.

Lots to see (and do) and the library
If you have never been in the Hoopeston Public Library, now is the time and you are in for a treat. On October 27 at 6 p.m., I arrived with my dessert to be part of a library event "Cooking the Books" - awesome event. We shared our food, made new friends and looked at new recipes.
Sounds like the library (your library) will be planning cooking, baking, fun events all year. Do yourself a favor and stop in. The staff is one of the best - ask for a tour, find out were your favorite books are.
It is so nice to have this beautiful library, having a place to sit and read newspapers, look at magazines, heck out books or movies and use the computers all for FREE. Now the staff has added all kinds of programs to help everyone in our town.
I wanted to say Thank You to my library staff for opening my mind to new adventures.

Letters to the Editor

cessful fall season of youth soccer in Hoopeston. Boys and girls ages 4-14 play each year in Danville as part of the Hoopeston Area Youth Soccer organization, and it is the time and effort of a lot of great people who insure more than 100 kids each fall have a great soccer experience.
A sincere and heart-felt thank you goes out to the following people: Steve & Kathy Harding, Nikki Rice, Adam Nelson, Jess and Yolanda Woods, Aaron and Ashlee Lewis, Joe and Sarah Combes, Chris and Rosanna Kelnhofer, McKenzie Baughn, Lorina Crabtree, Joe Swartz, Andy Smith, Allee Lewis, Lynn Morgan, Brian Huchel, Dusty Field, Phil Nogle, Alex Morales, Stewart Coffman, and Scott and Kristi Hudson.
Our thanks also goes out to local businesses who help keep our organization funded and supported. Thank you to the City of Hoopeston and the Parks Department staff for providing one of the best youth soccer complexes in this area. And of course thank you to all of our soccer parents and families for your time, snacks and support.
