Crime scene tape cordons off the entrance to Milford Family Restaurant. Village police and Iroquois County Sheriff's Police are investigating a robbery there that turned deadly early Sunday morning.

Milford, Iroquois police investigate restaurant robbery, death

MILFORD—Milford Police and Iroquois County Sheriff's Department are investigating an early morning robbery that left one person dead. The crime occurred at about 1:30 a.m. Sunday at Milford Family Restaurant, 107 E. Jones, when an unidentified person tried to rob the business, said sheriff's department Lt. Sean McCalla. The name of the deceased is not being released pending notification of family. McCalla remained on the scene late Sunday morning and as part of his detail, talked with those who drove up, planning to have a meal at the then-closed restaurant. He referred further questions to the sheriff's department, saying the department was expected to release further information later in the day Sunday.

From the Blotter

Police are investigating an accident reported at 2:41 p.m. Thursday in the 400 block of South Second Ave. The unknown driver of a red Kenworth semi was backing eastbound in the alleyway and struck a drop line belonging to NewWave Communications and Frontier Communications, then left the scene.

Matthew R. Langenfeld, 19, of Hoopeston, was ticketed after an accident at 9:09 am. Saturday at South Third Ave. and West Chestnut.

He was cited for no proof of insurance and failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident after his 2001 Ford Escort collided with a 1993 Chevrolet truck driven by Lori M. Montez, also of Hoopeston.

No injuries were reported. Langenfeld drove his vehicle from the scene; Montez made arrangements to have her truck towed away.
