From the Blotter

Two women were arrested after a representative of Dollar General, 415 S. Dixie Hwy., reported a possible theft.

Adena J. Rossolille, 38, and Raquel Rossolille, 37, were each charged with theft and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

A 29-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 10:20 a.m. Thursday that someone took items from her garage in the 300 block of East Maple.

Matthew L. Cannon, 36, of Hoopeston, was arrested Thursday in connection with a February 21 incident in the 900 block of East Wyman, involving people who were causing problems, then fleeing the scene.

Cannon was charged with criminal trespass to property and disorderly conduct and was released on notices to appear in court.

A blue spray-painted, silver trim bicycle was found at 10 a.m. Friday at Third St. and East Main. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Kyle B. Ponton, 26, of Hoopeston. Turned himself in to police at 3 p.m. Friday. He was wanted Vermilion and Iroquois county warrants for failure to appear/driving while license revoked.

Ponton posted $300 cash bond plus a $75 failure to appear fee on the Vermilion County warrant and $200 cash bond on the Iroquois County warrant and was released with new court dates.

Cornjerkers end season with 2A final loss to Bismarck-Henning

From the beginning of what promised to be a winning season, Cornjerker fans hoped the 1980s would repeat themselves in this year's Hoopeston Area basketball team.

Those hopes were dashed Friday when the Cornjerkers fell to Bismarck-Henning, 62-45 in Friday's regional championship match at Bismarck-Henning High School.

Junior Ryan Drayer led scoring for Hoopeston Area with 13, followed by senior Trey Layden with 11. Junior Logan Walde scored 10. Sophomore Graham Eighner and freshman Lucas Hofer each added three.

The Cornjerkers end their season with a 23-5 season.

The Blue Devils will face Monticello Tuesday in the Monticello Sectional semi-final.

First Christian Church to offer pancake supper, Lenten ashes

Start the first day of Lent with praying, reflecting and receiving the imposition of ashes by attending the Ash Wednesday service on March 1st in the chapel of First Christian Church, 502 E. Main St, Hoopeston, next to the library. The service begins at 5:30 p.m.

The black ashes are a sign of human sin and mortality. Ashes are placed on the forehead or on the back of the hand of each person in the form of a cross to prepare us to welcome the risen Christ with lives renewed by the breath of God's Spirit.

A pancake supper will be offered immediately after the Ash Wednesday service. The supper will be served around 6 pm in the Fellowship Hall with your choice of pancakes, sausage patties, fruit and beverages.
