HAHS Drama Club to present Annie Friday, Saturday

Hoopeston Area High School Drama Club will be presenting their Spring Musical Annie, at 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the school auditorium.

Annie tells the story of little orphan Annie (Maya Webber) who ends up in the lap of luxury with Depression-era billionaire Oliver Warbucks (Nick Brown).

Grace Farrell (Katie Weston), Warbucks' secretary, arrives at the orphanage to choose a child to spend Christmas at his home. Unlike most other children at Miss Hannigan's orphanage, spunky Annie believes her parents are still alive and will one day return to claim her. So when

Mr. Warbucks offers to adopt her, she asks the most powerful man in America to help find her real parents instead, and he agrees.

Warbucks' whopping $50,000 reward for Annie's parents attracts the attention of con artists Rooster (Will Franke), Lily (Adrienne Houmes) and the wicked Miss Hannigan (Mattie Drayer), who hatch a plot to kidnap Annie for the reward.

The ensemble includes: Jacob Nunn, Karsen Root, Sarah Houmes, Gage Glotzbach, Elizabeth Samet, Syd-

Daughters are precious, sons are extraordinary

By BERTHA PARSONS

I know you're thinking, "it's not Mother's Day or Father's Day, what's the big deal in April?" Well, I believe any month is a good time to celebrate our children. For those of you who do not have a daughter or a son, perhaps you have someone close like a daughter or son.

Since my children grew up in Hoopeston you may have gone to school or run around with them - I need to be careful what I say.

If you're lucky like me to have a beautiful, talented daughter, then you know the joy they give you. Daughters sometimes remind us of ourselves and our mothers. No matter how different we want to be, we usually end up a lot like our mothers. I know that's a little scary!

I never thought I was like my mother, she had great patience (I have none), she loved everyone she met (I'm pickier), she was always understanding and kind (I may be kind, I'm not always understanding).

Daughters are precious. Mine especially is a genuine, rare jewel. I have several other girls that I consider daughters, several in church, several who live away and one very special friend who lives close.

I was blessed with this daughter, Marie, who gives me joy and happiness and love all the time.

My two sons, Martin and Matt are extraordinary. I bet many of you have an extraordinary son, too. You wonder what you would do with them, then you wonder what you would do without them? I would be lost as they keep me on my toes. They are fantastic.

Each child is different, yet there are similarities. I marvel at how strong, kind and talented they are. Where did that come from? I hope if you have a son or daughter you take a long look at who they are no matter how young or old, get to know the real person you helped raise.

Sometimes as parents we get stuck in the mud, we are mired down with how they should be, why our way is best. We forget to find out what they are thinking, what they want. Precious daughters and extraordinary sons are a blessing so we should celebrate. They have made an impact on us for a lifetime.

Go ahead. Tell them you love them. Do it today!
