Groups to present program on last wishes at Danville library

University of Illinois Extension and Vermilion County Home Community Education will present "Super Powers: Your Wishes Done Right" on Wednesday, June 6, from 11 a.m.-noon at the Danville Public Library.

Attendees will learn about documents that can help them with their wishes during times of trouble as well as an action plan to take immediate steps in creating them.

For more information or to register for this program, contact the U of I Extension office in Danville at 217.442.8615.

University of Illinois Extension provides equal opportunities in programs and employment. If you need a reasonable accommodation to participate, please call the Extension Office.

You're the One that I Want

Six-year-old Evie Morts was the winner of the Grease contest, sponsored by Save the Lorraine Foundation, earlier this month. The contest was held in conjunction with the movie. Evie is the daughter of Kendra Morts and Scott Morts, of Milford.

Briefly

Food cupboard hours to change

Effective June 1, Hoopeston Food Cupboard will be open 12:30-2 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays, except holidays. This a permanent schedule change.

Sports camps canceled

The upcoming Hoopeston Area K-12 baseball and volleyball camps are cancelled due to coaching changes. Forms and payments already submitted will be returned.

Card shower

Marshal Devo Leslie is recuperating from surgery and would enjoy hearing from friends. Cards and well wishes may be sent to him at Carle Foundation Hospital, Room 6220, 611 W. Park St., Urbana IL 61801.

Resident reminders

- Hoopeston Water Department will begin flushing hydrants on Fridays, starting June 1. This could cause some rust in the water mains. It is suggested not to do laundry during that time period.
 - Police have received several complaints about golf carts driving on the grass. Golf carts are to be driven on roadways only.
 - Hoopeston City Hall has a drop box for prescriptions that are of date or no longer needed.
- Used needles may be disposed of in a special container at Carle Hoopeston Regional Health Center.

From the Blotter

Bridget B. Strawser, 23, of Hoopeston, was ticketed after Hoopeston Animal Control allegedly saw her dog chasing a golf cart in the 400 block of East Washington at 11 a.m. Tuesday. Strawser, charged with dog running at large, was mailed a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

A 30-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 6:59 p.m. Tuesday that someone took items from her property in the 800 block of East Seminary. The burglary is under investigation.

Andres Garcia, 21, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 10:33 p.m. Tuesday at Market and Penn. Wanted on a Potter County, Tex., warrant, he also faces preliminary charges of possession of cannabis, possession with intent to deliver and unlawful use of a weapon.

Garcia was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment on the local charges and extradition on the warrant.

Four teen bowlers advance to Pepsi Bowling Tournament

Fast Lanes are included in the tournament and bowl early in October to advance to regional. There they must place in the top five of their age group before advancing to the finals.

The four also bowl for the Hoopeston Area Cornjerker Bowling teams.
