Opening day

Scores of people make use of Hoopeston Swimming Pool Saturday afternoon. Damage to the pool's liner forced it to be closed until Saturday. The first people to make use of it were athletes in the Cornjerker Triathlon Saturday morning. The pool opened to the general public at noon for a free swim day. Season passes will be half price though August 20. The pool will be open through September. Until August 20 hours will be 12-7 Sunday-Saturday with adults only swim from 6-7 p.m. After August 20, hours will be 4-7 p.m. Monday-Friday and noon-7 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Day passes are $4 through August 20 and $2 per weekday and $4 per weekend day through September 30.

Setting the pace

Bryce Leigh leads runners in the 5K of Saturday's Cornjerker Triathlon, sponsored by Hoopeston Area Sports Boosters. Leigh and teammates Cody Moore, on the 12-mile bike ride, and Heather Moore, who swam 150 meters, again took first place. Organizer Scott Hudson said 20 people participated, down slightly from last year, in part because of Hoopeston Swimming Pool's late opening, Champaign's triathlon Sunday and people on vacation. "We are not worried about the future of the event," he said.
