From the Blotter

A 28-year-old Hoopeston man was arrested at 12:39 a.m. Thursday after allegedly writing graffiti on downtown businesses.

Joshua Kempen was charged with four counts of malicious mischief after allegedly using chalk to write on the old Okinawan School of Karate in the 200 block of South Market; Bzzz Place, 306 E. Main; 229 E. Main; and 206 S. Market.

Kempen was also charged with possession of drug paraphernalia before being released on five notices to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

A 91-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 11:10 a.m. that items were missing from her home in Parkview Court. Police are investigating.

A Samsung smart phone was found Friday and turned in to police. The owner may claim it there.

Michael J. Warren, 27, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 2:34 a.m. Saturday to Parkview Court for a report of a physical altercation.

He was arrested on preliminary charges of domestic battery, unlawful restraint and interfering with reporting a domestic battery.

Warren was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Ambrosio Ybarra III, 21, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 4:30 a.m. Saturday to the 500 block of West Maple for a disturbance. Police said after telling Ybarra several times to leave the area, he was charged with disobeying police. He was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Raymond Samora, 28, of Hoopeston, turned himself in to police at 12:30 p.m. Saturday. Wanted on a Vermilion County warrant for failure to appear, he was released on bond with a new court date.

Fire Calls

Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 4:37 a.m. Thursday for a semi truck on fire at 2800 North and 1090 East Rd. The fire was extinguished. No injuries were reported at the time of the call.

County victim assistance program collecting supplies for abuse shelter

The Vermilion County State's Attorney's Office Victim Assistance Program is hosting a supply drive for Domestic Violence Awareness Month.

The drive, October 4-14, is collecting items needed by the Crosspoint Human Services' Domestic Violence and Transitional Shelter.

Needed items include towels and washcloths, toddler-size diapers, journals for adults and children, laundry baskets and detergent.

Also, twin size mattress pads, body wash, grocery cards of $25 or less, nonperishable food items, cleaning supplies and children's craft supplies.

Donations may be dropped off at all Vermilion County McDonald's locations.

During Domestic Violence Month, the Victim Assistance Program is encourage everyone to speak up, to talk openly about domestic abuse and how it affects, lives, families and communities.
