Ministerial association to hold free Yard Work Day Nov. 3

Hoopeston Area Ministerial Association (HAMA) is offering to help residents in our area clean up their yards or landscapes on Saturday, Nov. 3.

Yard work may include, but limited to, raking leaves, picking up limbs or sticks from the yard, and sprucing-up the landscape.

HAMA consists of various Christian denominations and multiple congregations in our area. Yard Work Day is offered twice a year: spring and fall. This is a FREE service to our community.

Anyone wanting assistance with their yardwork on November 3 is asked to complete the HAMA Yard Work application by contacting Grant Township Supervisor Megan Deck at her office at 525 S. Market St or call (217) 283-5221.

Also, local congregations in the area should be able to assist you with this application.

The application deadline is October 28.

County clerk reports area telephone voter registration scam

Vermilion County Clerk Cathy Jenkins announced recently that residents have reported receiving phone calls impersonating an organization that provides voter registration assistance and mentions her office and her name.

There have been reports that these events are also occurring in other election jurisdictions. Callers asked the recipients if they want-

Saturday early voting starting

Vermilion County residents who wish to take advantage of Saturday early voting for the November 6 general election may do so beginning this week.

Vermilion County Clerk Cathy Jenkins will hold early voting from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays, October 13, 20, 27 and November 3.

Early voting will also be held during regular business hours, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m..

Jenkins' office is on the first floor of the Vermilion County Administration Building, 201 N. Vermilion, Danville.

ed to register to vote or request an absentee ballot over the phone.

The Vermilion County Clerk's Office does not solicit phone calls nor will it ever call you to ask you to register to vote.

These calls raise the possibility of voter confusion or follow-on malicious activity, Jenkins said in a press release.

Those who provide information to the callers will not be registered to vote, potentially causing a large number of unregistered residents to appear at their local polling place on Election Day. "We encourage any resident that has received such a phone call to report it to our office immediately," Jenkins said.

In addition, voter registration requires residents to provide significant personal information; such as date of birth, physical address, or partial Social Security numbers.

It is unclear at this time if the callers requested sensitive personal information required for registration. If provided, this information could be used to attempt fraudulent voter registration or conduct financially-motivated identity theft.

Jenkins encouraged all residents to be vigilant and cautions about giving any personal information to any caller for any reason.

Anyone with questions or concerns is asked to call the office of the Vermilion County Clerk at (217) 554-1900.

Jenkins also wants voters to know that Vermilion County uses the most secure cyber-security computer hygiene available in the office and the security of the voting process is of the utmost importance to her office, the county, and our representative republic.
