Oh the pressure!

Dennis Gress, owner of Pro Performance Pressure Washing, pressure cleans the sidewalk in front of the Lorraine Theatre Tuesday. Gress donated his services to the Save the Lorraine Foundation in time for the upcoming live performances of Dracula. A Hoopeston native, Gress recently returned to Hoopeston to be near family after having spent many years in Florida, where he retired from operating a water treatment plant. Judging by Tuesday's temperature, Gress estimated he might have one or two weeks left to work this season. "Nobody's going to want their driveway pressure washed in November," he said.
