Adult, youth Mental Health First Aid to be at DACC HLC

Not all people experience joy during the holiday season. For many, various factors make the holidays a season of depression.

Mental Health First Aid sessions for adults and youth are scheduled at the DACC Higher Learning Center in Hoopeston to teach people how to recognize and respond to those in need.

Adult Mental Health First Aid will be held from 8 a.m.-noon November 27-28 at the Higher Learning Center, 847 E. Orange.

Youth Mental Health First Aid, designed to help youth ages 12-18, will be held from 6-9 p.m. Tuesdays, Dec. 4, 11, and 18, also at the HLC. To become certified in Youth Mental Health First Aid, participants must attend all three sessions.

Mental Health First Aid allows participants to identify, understand and respond to signs of mental illnesses and substance use disorders.

The eight-hour training gives participants skills to reach out and provide initial support to a person who may be developing a mental health or substance abuse problem and help with connect with appropriate care.

Mental Health First Aid covers common signs and symptoms of mental illness, common signs and symptoms of substance use, how to interact with a person in
