Two longtime school board members will not run again

Two Hoopeston Area Board of Education members elected in 2007 are bowing out.

Current President Mark Schaumburg and Secretary Chris Elliott will not run in the April 2, 2019 consolidated election.

A third incumbent, Chris Small, will run to retain his seat. Small, who was first elected in 2011, is the board's current vice president.

All are four-year terms.
Schaumburg and Small represent inside the old Hoopeston School District, while Elliott, of rural Rankin, See BOARD on other side

HAHS cleaning out for new store

Hoopeston Area High School is setting up a new Cornjerker Spirit Store to run during school starting in the second semester. To make room for the new project, spring cleaning started early. To make room, VHS tapes, mini cassette tapes and even a few DVDs from school functions. Graduations, Sweetheart Dinners, concerts, sporting events and more, spanning 30 plus years are on the tapes.

Before the items are discarded, they are being offered to the public. Anyone who would like to have them is welcome to call the high school, (217) 283-6661, and schedule an appointment to go through them. This will be open to the public until December 20. Officials will then dispose of remaining tapes.
