Schools to be closed, businesses adjust for frigid temperatures

Local businesses are making adjustments for the bitter cold this week.

Hoopeston Area and Rossville-Alvin schools will be closed Wednesday in light of projected wind chills of -37 to -47.

Other weather-related announcements include:

- Hoopeston City Hall is open as a warming center from 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.
- Youth bowling at Fast Lanes is canceled Wednesday.
- Hoopeston Public Library will be closed Wednesday and close at 5 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday.
- Just the Facts' Thursday's issue will be online only.
- Vermilion County offices will be closed Wednesday.

• Vermilion County Department of Animal Regulation will be doing welfare checks this week. If is seen in danger outside, department personnel will confiscate the animal and take it to a veterinarian for treatment. Owners will be responsible for the vet bill and may also face charges.

- Grant-Butler Township Assessor's office will be closed Wednesday.
- Republic Services will not have garbage pickup on Wednesday. Collection will run one day late the rest of the week.
- Hoopeston Multi Agency will be closed Wednesday. There will be no bus service.

Scraping by

A Hoopeston Street and Alley Department employee cleans up a slushy mix of ice and snow from Seminary Ave. on Monday before temperatures dropped and remaining moisture refroze. The plowing reduced ruts and clumps of ice from the roadway.

Thomas 7th in sectional bowling; girls to start regionals Saturday

Hoopeston Area's Devan Thomas bowled in the Sectional bowling tournament January 21 in Alton.

A quick start placed him in fourth place after three games with 221, 235, and 214 for a fine 670 series. Lane conditions changed drastically over lunch and he could never get his line back and finished with games of 156,163,181 for a fine 1170 series, averaging 195.

Thomas failed to make the top seven bowlers advancing to state, however finished a very fine year.

The Cornjerkers finished the team event last weekend in Decatur.

The lady Cornjerkers begin their quest for state this Saturday at Decatur in the Taylorville Regional.
