Danville group collecting hygiene supplies for area residents

A collection is being held to help the less fortunate with items often neglected by other agencies.

The Dwelling Place of Vermilion County serves Vermilion County residents, families and children in "hygiene poverty" and distributes hygiene products at the Hoopeston Multi Agency on the 1st. Friday of each month.

The Dwelling Place is holding a collection drive in March and April.

In March, items may be dropped off at McDonald's, 824 S. Dixie Hwy.. Then, from 7:30 a.m.-6:30 p.m. April 3, residents may drop items off at WHPO, 912 S. Dixie Hwy.

Collections are also being held April 2 at Richie Manor Community Center in Georgetown and April 4 in the Vermilion County Administration Building, Danville. The goal is to raise $30,000 in products and monetary contributions.

Items needed are:

- Body wash
- Shampoo
- Toothpaste
- Toothbrushes

Free women's self-defense program offered in Danville

Every 108 seconds, a woman in the U.S. is sexually assaulted.

Approximately 293,000 people become victims of sexual assault each year in Illinois.

To combat those statistics, the Vermilion County State's Attorney Victim Assistance Program and Kruger's ATA Martial Arts, Inc., are teaming up for a free women-only, one-day self-defense learning experience.

In the class, women will learn:

- Crime prevention tips
- How to increase awareness
- Simple, powerful self-defense moves
