A woman holds story time for children and beloved story characters in a new mural in Hoopeston Public Library's Children's Room. The mural, painted by local artist David Webber, is in memory of former teacher and library employee Denise Ried.

Mural graces HPL Children's Room in memory of former educator, library staff member

Visitors to Hoopeston Public Library's Children's Room will now be greeted by a giant story time mural, created in memory of a former local educator and library staffer.

Donations given to HPL in memory of Denise Ried were used to fund the mural, recently completed by local artist, David Webber.

Ried, of Wellington, had worked as a paraprofessional and as a kindergarten teacher in the Hoopeston Area Schools from 1992 until her retirement in 2015. She had also worked part-time at HPL and at the Citizens State Bank of Milford. She passed away in February 2018.

The mural depicts a woman reading to three children, surrounded by some of Ried's favorite book characters, including Kermit the Frog and Pete the Cat. Shelves in the mural also feature some of Ried's favorite book titles.
