Country Financial donates $1,500 Hoopeston Fire Department

COUNTRY Financial Representative Sandie Smith is pleased to announce the Hoopeston Fire Department as 2019 a recipient of a $1500 COUNTRY Financial Operation Helping Heroes donation.

Smith presented the donation recently to Hoopeston Fire Chief Joel Bird, who said the money will be earmarked for fire prevention.

"Our firefighters go above and beyond, serving others selflessly and providing an invaluable service to our community," said Smith. "COUNTRY Financial recognizes the work of our first responders who put their lives on the line daily to protect our community, and we want to ensure they have the tools that are needed to do the job."

COUNTRY Financial initiated Operation Helping Heroes in 2015 to support non-profit events and programs that benefit active duty service members, veterans and their families. More recently, Operation Helping Heroes expanded to provide support for emergency first responders.

In 2019, COUNTRY Financial and its financial representatives have already provided more than $600,000 in donations to first responders and service members.

Letters to the Editor

Memorial Day thankfulness

It's never too late to say "Thank You" for the moving Memorial Day honors at Floral Hill Cemetery.

The weather was perfect, the attendance large, the music spectacular, the Pastor moving and the speaker very informative.

Then what a delight it was to be invited to the VFW for a free lunch which turned out to be fantastic as we wound down our celebration.

Our community is very fortunate to have individuals and organizations who devote their time to preparing and participating in these events. Don't miss the opportunity to attend the Veteran's Day celebration and next year's Memorial Day event. Just imagine, there could come a day that we do not have the privilege of attending such events, so we must make the most of them while we can.

Thank you to all who made the remembrance of our fallen comrades a very special day for all to enjoy.
