HA board approves raises for administrators, year-round staff

Hoopeston Area School Board approved a four percent pay raise for administrators and 12-month salaried employees at its monthly meeting Thursday evening.

Board President Dave McFadden said that a review of the last few years showed those employees' raises only kept pace with the cost of living one year in four and were not on par, percentage-wise, with other employees' raises

Also, he said, the increase keeps Hoopeston Area competitive with other districts. He cited recently approved increases of five and four percent in Westville and Danville, respectively. "It was the general feeling that we have an excellent team," he said. "We want to do what is proper for our team and for our taxpayers to maintain the team that we have."

Administrators and their new salaries include John Klaber, high school principal, $93,600; Michelle White, middle school principal, $83,200; Dan Walder, John Greer principal, $88,824.28; Suzi Root, Maple principal $82,434.77; and Kim Hutzler, assistant high school principal, $75,625.73

Salaries for other positions include business manager/transportation director, $67,598.97; computer technician, $53,771.66; building and grounds supervisor, $41,600; and mechanic, $36,692.61.

A 13.3 percent raise for Emily Brown, curriculum coordinator, was mentioned but not approved. That increase, like the others, is meant to keep wages competitive.

The board is expected to vote on the raise at its August 15 meeting, McFadden said.
