Hoopeston First Christian Church to host Jake's Boys gospel group at 10 a.m. Sunday service

JAKE'S BOYS

A Gibson City-based gospel group will perform at a Sunday church service in Hoopeston.

Jake's Boys will perform at First Christian Church at 10 a.m. Sunday. They will lead hymns and Christian songs during the worship service at the church, located at 502 E. Main St.

Jake's Boys is an a cappella group featuring leads Doug Bennett and Jeff Glascock, tenors Tom Fairchild and Merle McCallister, baritones Tom Bennett and Alex Bennett and basses, Tom Litwiller and Doug Schultz, all of the Gibson City area.

The group got its start after its members participated in a production of "Joseph and The Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat" in 1997. When performances ended, the men - all members of the cast and crew - got together to sing.

Jake's Boys sings mostly southern gospel songs, but also a wide variety of music centering on patriotism and old-time hymns.

Everyone is welcome to enjoy the music of Jake's Boys at First Christian Church.
