Ford County accident claims life of 84-year-old Rankin woman

An 84-year-old Rankin woman died as a result of injuries she received in a two-vehicle accident Tuesday.

Mary C. Diskin was pronounced dead at Carle Foundation Hospital at 2:22 p.m. An autopsy was to be performed Wednesday, with an inquest possible at a later date.

According to reports, the accident occurred at about 11:45 a.m. at the intersection of Ford County roads 2600 East and 200 North.

Mrs. Diskin, in a 2014 Kia Sorento, was northbound and collided with a 2018 Ford Focus, driven by Nancy K. Lee, 73, of rural Milford. Lee, who was east-bound, allegedly failed to stop at the intersection. She was also taken to Carle and was later ticketed for disobeying a stop sign.

Reports said both women were alive and breathing when police arrived. Rankin and Paxton fire departments were called to the scene extricate both women from their vehicles.

Mrs. Diskin's vehicle struck a stop sign post, rolled on its top and came to rest in a field about 40 feet from the intersection. Lee's vehicle also ended up in a field but did not roll over. Both vehicles were totaled.

Letters to the Editor

Resolved on abortion

Whereas the governor of Illinois and a majority of state legislators have blatantly rejected the establishment clause of the United States Constitution by sponsoring state-funded abortion with tax payer money, and

Whereas that same body has rejected the Word of God concerning the value and dignity of unborn babies, even up to 9 months old (Luke 1:41-44), and

Whereas a majority of Illinois state politicians have publically ridiculed federal judicial precedent and honorable judges who have already ruled on freedom of conscience in private insurance plans and the limits of government, and

Whereas these same renegade legislators have sought to persecute, with lawsuits and fines, peaceful and law abiding Christian citizens who humbly disagree with them about morality, and

Whereas they have dishonored our veterans who have fought for and given their lives for our sacred freedoms,

Be it resolved that Evangelical Christians stand opposed to such divisive and radical state discrimination not only against Protestants, but also against Catholics, Orthodox Jews and every other politically peaceful religious group.

Bible believing Christians further resolve to pray for God's intervention at the highest federal level including the United States Supreme Court, that unconstitutional Illinois policy and religious discrimination be overturned, and that all Illinois citizens may live together in harmony, enjoying our God-given and inalienable rights (1 Tim 2:2, Mark 12:17).
