GOP incumbent, Democrat challenger, file for District 1 seat

Voters in District 1 for the Vermilion County Board will have a choice in the March 17, 2020 primary election. Incumbent Republican Joel Bird filed Monday to retain his seat, and on Tuesday, Democrat Connor Gilonske filed to represent the area in northern Vermilion County. Bird, 43, was appointed to his seat in May 2017, after Darren Duncan was appointed county treasurer. Bird was nominated by the Republican Central Committee and sworn in May 15. In 2018, he ran unopposed to fill the remainder of the term. Gilonske, 19, is running for his first office after having joined the Democratic party earlier this year. He is the first Democrat to run for District 1 County Board since 2016, when retired Hoopeston Paul Manion unsuccessfully challenged Duncan before his appointment as treasurer.

Filing began November 25 and will run until 5 p.m. Monday, December 2 in the Vermilion County Clerk's office, 201 N. Vermilion. The office will be closed Thursday and Friday and reopen Monday.
