Farmers, land owners invited to meeting to discuss options for Lake Vermilion Watershed

Farmers and landowners in the Lake Vermilion Watershed in Vermilion County, as well as the general public, are invited to a Lake Vermilion Watershed Meeting this week.

The meeting will be held from 10-11:30 a.m. Thursday in the Vermilion County Farm Bureau conference room, 1905C, U.S. Route 150, Danville.

Those who farm or own ground in the watershed are asked to take advantage of this opportunity to learn about the current program to update the 2008 Lake Vermilion Watershed Plan and build on its past efforts.

Officials will also be asking for input in identifying resource concerns and potential solutions. This is an opportunity to identify locations for voluntary conservation practices within the watershed.

Refreshments will be provided. To RSVP, please call (217) 442-8511, ext. 3. The meeting is sponsored by Vermilion County Soil & Water Conservation District, Illinois Nutrient Loss Reduction Strategy, Aqua Illinois, Illinois Farm Bureau and Vermilion County Farm Bureau.

Correction

It was incorrectly reported in Tuesday's issue that Denise Scharlach was Miss Hoopeston 1983. She held the title in 1991.

Also, a reader noted that while Scharlach and her daughters, Terra and Asti, are the first mother/daughter/daughter Miss Hoopestones, the first mother/daughter Miss Hoopestones occurred in 1993, when Scotti Elizabeth Schellhardt was named Miss Hoopeston, daughter of 1970 Miss Hoopeston, Betsy Ford Schellhardt.

Just the Facts regrets the errors.
