Hoopeston grillers sought for WCIA/Pork Producers contest

WCIA Our Town and the Illinois Pork Producers are looking for the top “Grillmaster” in each of the towns featured in their Our Town series.

Since Hoopeston will be presented during this year’s series, “We as a City have been asked to submit someone that we have selected to represent Hoopeston,” said Mayor Bill Crusinberry. “This person would be someone who totally enjoys backyard smoking and barbecuing all kinds of meats for family, friends, or others.”

Qualifications include:

- 18 years or older
- Non-professional: cannot have owned a restaurant, food truck, or worked as a chef
- Available to cook live on air Friday, June 26 from 3 to 6:30 pm (location in Hoopeston to be determined)
- Available to go to WCIA studio Friday, Sept. 4 to participate in cook-off with other Our Town Grillmasters

For the live cooking on June 26, the Pork Producers will supply their large grill and the meat.

Those interested in being considered for the contest should email billcrusinberry@cityofhoopeston.com by June 12 and tell us why they should be selected, he said.

Residents can see other towns’ Grillmasters on June 5, 12, and 26 at 4, 5, and 6 p.m.

A Modern Fairy Tale

Goldilocks' Porridge Shop

Goldilocks opened a porridge shop after visiting the Three Bears.

She wanted to increase business and advertised in the longest-running publication in the land. Then the bill came. "These prices are too high and nobody bought my porridge," she said. She advertised in another publication but noticed they piled up in doorways and saw dogs treating them as toys. "My ads are not being seen and no one is buying my porridge," she said.

Then she placed her ad in Just the Facts. Sales skyrocketed so she started a chain of porridge shops, bought a jet and and lived happily ever after!
