New COVID case added; IDPH to offer free testing in county

Vermilion County has its 88th confirmed case of the novel coronavirus. Public Health Administrator Doug Toole announced Tuesday that a person in his 20s was confirmed to have the disease.

There have been 7,640 negative test results and two COVID-related deaths.

Toole also announced that Illinois Department of Public Health will provide free drive-through/walk-up COVID-19 testing next week in Vermilion County.

Testing is free and no appointment is necessary. Anyone, with or without symptoms, can be tested.

In Hoopeston, the IDPH mobile testing van will be at Hoopeston Area High School, 615 E. Orange, from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Friday, July 24.

Other sites in the county, all of which will be open from 9 a.m.-5 p.m., include:

- Monday, July 20: East Main St., north of the Oakwood Village Hall, Oakwood
- Tuesday, July 21: Vermilion County Health Department, 200 S. College St., Danville
- Wednesday, July 22: Judith Giacoma Grade School, 2000 S. College St., Westville
- Thursday, July 23: Second Church of Christ, 3350 E. Voorhees, Danville
- Saturday, July 25: Danville Area Community College, 2000 E. Main, Danville
- Sunday, July 26: Vermilion County Health Department, 200 S. College St., Danville.

From the Blotter

A blue Schwinn bicycle was found in the alley of the 400 block of West Maple, where it was left unattended for several days. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Patrick E Henning, 47, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 11:40 a.m. Tuesday while police were investigating another complaint in the 700 block of East Wyman.

Wanted on a Vermilion County warrant, he was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await a hearing.

James C. Roof, 50, of Hoopeston, was ticketed after an accident at 1:37 p.m. Tuesday in the 500 block of South Fifth St.

Police said Roof, in a 1993 Ford truck, backed from a parking space into the driver side of a parked 2020 Buick, owned by Elizabeth Donley, also of Hoopeston.

A computer check showed Roof's license was suspended. He was charged with driving while license suspended and was released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County traffic court.

Anthony J. Chandler, 38, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police checked out with him at 8:20 p.m. Tuesday at South Second Ave. and West Penn. He was charged with disorderly conduct and possession of methamphetamines and was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

A 15-year-old Hoopeston boy was charged with burglary after police responded to a report of a burglary alarm sounding in the 300 block of North Third St.

Police were called to the area at 9:28 p.m., where the youth was standing outside. Witnesses told police he had been inside the residence. After being charged, the boy was released to a parent.

A 46-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 10:40 p.m. Tuesday that someone stole items from his home in the 300 block of West Penn. Police are investigating.

Police are also investigating a report made at 11:18 p.m. Tuesday by a 42-year-old Hoopeston woman, that items were stolen from her vehicle in the 200 block of East McCracken.
