From the Blotter

Tyler C. Griffin, 29, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called to Hoopeston Marathon, 714 W. Orange. He was charged with theft for allegedly stealing a purse Tuesday from the game room at the business.

Griffin was charged with theft and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

A 32-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 4:41 a.m. Wednesday that someone took her vehicle from the 700 block of West Elm.

Police found the vehicle and continue an investigation into the theft.

Vicki Ford, 62, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 1:08 a.m. Friday for a domestic dispute in the 400 block of South Fifth St. Alleging she refused to cooperate with officers, she was charged with disobeying police and was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Ford was arrested again after police were called at 5:04 a.m. Friday on a complaint from a 57-year-old Hoopeston woman who alleged Ford battered her.

She was charged with battery and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Linsey M. Warner, 32, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 1:56 p.m. Friday to 112 Wine and Coffee Shoppe, 112 E. Main. She was charged with trespassing and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Chase R. Hensley, 25, homeless, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 6:53 a.m. Saturday in the south alley of the 500 block of West Main. Known by officers as not having a driver's license, he was charged with that offense, along with two counts of criminal damage to state-supported property, resisting police officers and obstructing justice.

Hensley was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment. The vehicle he was driving was towed from the scene under the city's public nuisance tow ordinance.

A St. Joseph man was arrested after police investigated a hit-and-run accident at 10:01 p.m. Saturday at Third St. and East Thompson.

Police and fire departments were sent to the area after a utility pole, owned by Frontier Communications, was struck by a 2006 Dodge truck.

Matthew Carter, 37, of St. Joe, was arrested on pre-
