Trivia Night returns to Lorraine

After a hiatus, Save the Lorraine Foundation is bringing back its popular Trivia Night. It will begin at 6 p.m. Saturday at the Lorraine Theatre, 324 E. Main.

Those wishing to take part are encouraged to reserve their table early, as there is a seven-table, 42-person limit, as part of safety precautions.

People may sign up as a full team of six players or come alone and join a smaller team. For a $10 entry fee, contestants get to answer five questions in each of 20 categories, and receive a free popcorn and bottled pop or water. Additional concessions are available for purchase.

For an additional $5, participants can include a Pizza King personal pizza.

The entry fee will be refunded to the winning team and a door prize will be awarded.

For reservations or more information, call Marilyn, (217) 840-4870 or Betty, (217) 304-5308.

Proceeds go towards the preservation and restoration of the Lorraine Theatre.

IDOA announces details for Junior livestock, horse events by August 10. Overnight camping will be available in Du Quoin at a rate of $25 per night.

IDOA will award ribbons to Champions, Reserve Champions, Grand Champions and Reserve Grands in each species, and will pay out premiums based on total entry monies received in a "Jackpot" style format. As a reminder, the Junior Shows are open to Illinois residents only, ages 8-21.

IDOA's top priority remains safety. The Junior Livestock Expo will be held in the "Show and Go" format, discouraging overnight camping and the stalling/penning of any species. Species with the ability to show off trailers will be asked to do so. In addition, all exhibitors, family members and general public at both locations must adhere to social distancing guidelines and will be required to wear a face covering at all times while on the Illinois and Du Quoin State Fairgrounds.

Fire Calls

Hoopeston Fire Department was called at 2:25 a.m. Sunday to Heritage Health, 426 N. Dixie Hwy., for a fire alarm. It was determined to be a mechanical issue that will be looked into.

The Junior Livestock Expo will take place September 11-13 and September 18-20. The Junior Horse Show will be held August 29-30 and September 5-6. For a complete list of rules and regulations, as well as to view the premium book please visit, www2.illinois.gov/sites/agr.
