Covid takes a break as no new cases reported over weekend

After seven new cases were reported Friday, Vermilion County had no new COVID-19 cases reported over the weekend.

Health Administrator Doug Toole announced Friday that of the seven cases, one each is in their 80s, 50s and teens and two are in their 30s. Two are family-related to a positive case from earlier in the week, he said.

The additions bring the total number of positive cases to

254. Of those, 28 are active, with 27 isolated at home, one is hospitalized, 224 have been released/recovered and two have died.

Four new negative cases were reported Saturday, bringing that total to 15,535, he said.

Of those testing positive, 46 are ages 0-19; 62 are in their 20s; 40 are ages 30-39; 28 are in their 40s; 35 are are black, seven percent Hispanic, four percent unknown and one percent listed as "other." There have been no biracial positive cases listed.

Vermilion County's overall positivity rate, which has been trending upward, currently is at 1.61 percent. The county's seven-day positivity rate, from August 2-8, is 1.8 percent, which has fallen due to new cases over the past couple of weeks, but is still below Gov. J.B. Pritzker's threshold of an increase less than or equal to eight percent.

Vermilion County is within all state metrics and is under no warnings.
