A grand day for a parade

Kids (and some adults) pick up candy during Saturday's golf cart parade down Main Street. Scores of people turned out along the route of what is normally the Grand Parade, part of the National Sweetcorn Festival. With COVID-19 restrictions this year, the Hoopeston Jaycees opted not to hold the annual event. Two Hoopeston natives - Clayton Hinkle and Regina Fraley - decided to hold an unofficial parade for golf carts. The event blossomed to include bicycles, walkers and the Shriners Krazy Karts. See related photo on other side.
