City hall to remain closed

A positive Covid test for a city employee, as well as increasing positive tests in the city is resulting in an extended closing for Hoopeston City Hall. It will now be closed to the public until November 9.

For city services may call (217) 283-5833. Water payments may be put in the drop box in front of city hall, made by phone, mail or online at www.paymentservicenetwork.com.

The police department front window will also be closed. For assistance, call the nonemergency number, (217) 283-5196. For emergencies, call 9-1-1.

Volunteers met at McFerren Park Friday and Saturday to place the annual display of Christmas lights. Above left, it's all hands on deck to lift and tether one of the large displays. Right, Jamie Taflinger, of Hoopeston, gets a little help on a smaller display from six-year-olds daughter Kassidy and Peyton Silver, son of Michael and Elizabeth Silver. The lights will be lit Saturday, Nov. 21 - a week earlier than usual - from dusk to 11 p.m. nightly. Organizers are looking for groups to collect donations on weekends of the display, which goes through January 2, 2021. Groups must have a 501c3. For more information, email liz@russleigh.com.

From the Blotter

Police are investigating a hit-and-run accident reported at 6:08 p.m. Wednesday in the 100 block of east Lincoln. An unknown vehicle hit a 1991 GMC truck owned by Paul Kelnhofer, of Wellington. The truck was parked on the side of the road when the accident occurred.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 5:25 p.m. Thursday in the 400 block of East Honeywell. Florence B. Trpicovsky, 66, of Hoopeston, told police she backed from a parking space and, due to the sun blinding her, sideswiped a utility pole with the rear driver portion of her 2002 Mercury.

Holly Irvin, 40, of Hoopeston, was cited for restraint of dog by owner or keeper after police were called at 6:20 p.m. Thursday for a dog running loose. She was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston
