Help a family in need

David and Tasha Brown, of Rossville, and their four children, lost their possessions, including Christmas gifts, in a house fire Saturday. Rossville residents are collecting gift card and monetary donations for the Browns.

If anyone in Hoopeston would like to contribute, please contact Laura Flint at 217-260-1604. Thank you very much!

Community Christmas dinner

Reservations are being accepted for the ninth annual free Community Christmas Dinner on Christmas day. Due to Covid guidelines, all meals will be delivered this year, to Hoopeston and Rossville residents who request them.

Desserts (but not cream pies) and rolls, along with volunteers are needed. Cash donations may be made at First Farmers Bank & Trust.

Call (217) 495-1620 by December 19 for reservations. Use the same number for questions or to volunteer.

Simplicity

These lights on North Third St. were strung by young man new to outdoor decorating, who spent hours lighting his family's home. While pretty in their simplicity, this display is expected to grow in future years into a sight and sound experience.

Call us today at 855-692-7824 to get water delivered to your home or business or visit our office at 102 N 1st Ave. in Hoopeston to pick up your water!
