From the Blotter

A debit card was found outside Silgan Containers Thursday. The owner may claim it at the police station.

A cell phone was found Saturday in the 700 block of West Maple. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Linsey Warner, 31, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 11:36 a.m. Saturday for a domestic disturbance in the 800 block of East McCracken.

Warner was charged with battery under city ordinance and released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Gage Fouse, 26, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police responded at 5:49 p.m. Saturday to the 800 block of South Second Ave. for a report from a 24-year-old Hoopeston woman, who said someone entered a home without permission.

Fouse was charged with trespassing under city ordinance and was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Snow mountain

A pile of snow plowed in the downtown area sits in front of Elephant Park, between New Beginnings Church and the Little Lorraine on Main St. The accumulation 10"-plus snow last week has city and school officials hoping for no more. "If it snows again, I don't know where we're going to put it," said HA Supt. Robert Richardson at Thursday's Hoopeston Area School Board meeting.

Don't get SCAMMED!

Credit cards are the safer option for online shopping. Merchants are required to help reimburse and dispute charges under 60 days and over $50. Debit cards/cash apps are risky because a bank account is involved.

Never pay utility bills or services with wire transfers or gift cards.
