Feed My Lambs lunch program to start, seeks donations

The Feed My Lambs Summer Sack Lunch Program will begin on Tuesday, June 1. This program is for Hoopeston area students in grades Pre-K through 12th grade.

Lunches may be picked up from 11 a.m.-noon at Hoopeston First United Methodist Church, 403 E Main St.

Precautions are being taken to ensure safe preparation and distribution of lunches. One family member is to pick up lunches for all eligible children in the family.

Face masks are required, and social distancing will be practiced.

Feed My Lambs is beginning its 13th year of serving children of the Hoopeston Area School District who might otherwise go hungry during the summer. With best practices in mind, we will be serve lunches using the utmost caution and social distancing that is the

From the Blotter

A 13-year-old Hoopeston boy was charged with theft and trespassing after police were called at 10:44 p.m. Wednesday to Hoopeston Marathon, 714 W. Orange. The charges came on a complaint from a 43-year-old Hoopeston man.

The youth was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Craig I. Stevens, 42, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 1:54 p.m. Wednesday to the 800 block of East McCracken for a report of missing items.

Stevens was charged with theft over $500 and taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Bailee Cannon, 21, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 9:07 p.m. Thursday in the 100 block of East Main St., for an incident that occurred at 11:52 a.m. Tuesday.

Cannon was charged with violation of an order of protection on a complaint from a 67-year-old Hoopeston current recommendation.

We will use an extremely limited number of workers practicing food safety and social distancing. We anticipate a greater number this year, due to working in cooperation with Project Success in addition to serving students who choose to pick up a lunch at the church.

With an expected increase in need, we are asking for monetary or supply donations to provide area children with lunch that includes a sandwich, fruit, a grain (granola bar or something similar) a treat and a carton of milk.

Below is a list of suggested food donations and as always monetary donations are also welcome.

Peanut butter
Individual fruit cups
Individual bags of chips/crackers
Pudding cups
Granola bars
Go-gurt
String cheese
Individual packages of cookies
Individual cups of Jello
