Hoopeston Area graduate named Wabash College student body president for 2021-22 year

Class of 2018 Hoopeston Area High School alum Daniel Bass was recently elected to serve as the 2021-22 Wabash College student body president.

He will serve as president of Wabash College's Student Senate during his senior year. Bass will oversee the Student Senate's $387,000 budget, which is allocated to the College's 70 recognized clubs, student life improvement, and campus events. He will represent 870 students from 31 states and 19 countries during his one-year term.

Wabash College, founded in 1832, is a nationally-ranked private liberal arts college in Crawfordsville, Ind. US News ranks the college as #54 in National Liberal Arts Colleges, #22 in Best Value Schools, #23 Best Undergraduate Teaching, and #49 in Top Performers on Social Mobility.

The Princeton Review has ranked Wabash as #1 in Best Alumni Network, #3 in Best Internship Opportunities, & #28 in Best Value Colleges for private schools.

Bass will be coming into his presidential term inheriting the #10 Most Active Student Government among United States' colleges.

While at Hoopeston Area, Bass was heavily in-involved in FFA. In 2018, He was elected as the first Section 18 President from Hoopeston Area and served on the 30-member Illinois Association FFA state officer team throughout the 2018-2019 year. During his time, Bass travelled around the 11-school section and throughout the state advocating for agricultural education.

Bass also travelled to Washington DC where he lobbied within the United States House of Representatives and Senate on behalf of agricultural legislation that would benefit Illinois farmers.

Bass will graduate from Wabash College in the Spring of 2022 with a Bachelor of Arts in rhetoric and psychology, with a minor in political science.

Rural Hoopeston woman injured in accident Monday

Jana L. Fuller, 29, of rural Hoopeston, was injured in an accident reported at 8:26 a.m. Monday.

According to Vermilion County Sheriff's Department Sgt. Kyle Smitley, Fuller was eastbound on 4200 North, near 1130 East, when her vehicle left the roadway, hitting a mailbox, stump and tree and rolling over before coming to rest.

Fuller was ejected from the vehicle, but was conscious at the scene, Smitley said. She was taken to Carle Hoopeston Regional Health Center.

No tickets were issued.

Arrow Ambulance and Hoopeston Fire Department also responded to the scene.

From the Blotter

Lashaun R. Price, 36, of Hoopeston, was ticketed after a hit-and-run accident at 1029 p.m. Saturday at West Orange and South Sixth Ave.

Police said Desiree N. Watson, 22, of Hoopeston, was eastbound in a 2013 Ford Explorer when a red van pulled out of Hoopeston Marathon in front of her at a high rate of speed. Watson tried to avoid the vehicle but clipped the rear passenger side.

Receiving accurate information from Watson and witnesses, officers located Price and charged him with leaving the scene of an accident and failure to yield entering a highway from a private drive.

He was released on notices to appear in Vermilion County Court.

Iroquois County Sheriff's Police arrested Steven L. Rowell Jr., 49, of Milford on Monday.

According to police reports, Rowell was taken into custody on charges of driving under the influence of alcohol, failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and driving under the influence of a breath alcohol concentration over .08.

An investigation showed Rowell was eastbound on County Road 800 North near 2190 East when his vehicle left the roadway and entered the south ditch, where a passenger was ejected from the vehicle.
