Over and out

Hoopeston Police Sgt. Jeremy Welch, back left, is the newest member to join the ranks of retired city officers. His last day of duty was June 18, after 21 years with the department. A reception for Welch, held Thursday, brought out other officers, both working and retired. Also pictured are, front, James "Fuzzy" Goodrum and back, Chief Jim DeWitt, the only one of the group still on the force, Joe Gaffney and Steve Bane. Former dispatchers Judi Pierce and Russell Rudd also stopped by to congratulate Welch on his retirement and swap stories of their years working together.
