From the Blotter

Eric R. Couch, 32, of Rankin, was arrested after police were called at 1:10 a.m. Monday for a suspicious person at Parkview Court. Searching for the person, officers found Couch, who matched the description. A computer check showed he was wanted on a Vermilion County warrant for possession. He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

A 26-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 5:40 a.m. Monday that his 2006 Hyundai Santa Fe was stolen from the 800 block of West Main. The vehicle is light grey with Missouri license plates.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 12:49 a.m. Saturday at South Second Ave. and West Penn.

Police said Bryce S. Wallace, of Milford, was on Penn, approaching the intersection, when his 2013 Volkswagen Passat was rear-ended by a 2000 Toyota driven by Spencer G. Hyde, of Ludlow. The car is owned by Sarah Michaels, of Mansfield, police said.

Both vehicles were driven from the scene.

Two people were arrested after a traffic stop at 8:24 p.m. Monday at East McCracken and North Sixth St.

Samuel R. Hale, 42, and Tiffany N. Walker, 28, both from Tennessee, were each charged with possession of drug paraphernalia. Walker was also wanted on an Iroquois County warrant resulting from an original charge of driving while license revoked.

Hale was released with a notice to appear in Vermilion County Court. Walker was transported to Iroquois County Jail by an Iroquois County deputy.

Up high

With the walls already up, workers on Hoopeston's new Dollar General store started the week off atop the roof. Construction workers had a good day for their tasks Monday with clear skies and light winds. They face the chance of rain each day through the rest of the work week. The new store is located on Rt. 9, west of the railroad tracks.

PRILLAMAN - Daniel Glen "Dan" Prillaman of Bloomington, IL passed away on August 14, 2021, at 73 years of age.

He is survived by his wife Margaret "Peggy" Prillaman; children Jodi of Tacoma, WA and Matthew of Avon, CO; stepchildren April (Chad) Athey of Pawnee, IL and David (Amanda) Robertson Jr. of Bismarck; grandchildren: Lorissa (Tom), Sienna, Bella, William, Mya, Layla, Hunter, Anniston and Crimsyn; and great-grandchildren Selena and Michael. He is also survived by his brothers Terry (Sharon) Prillaman of Rossville, Gregg (Cindy) Prillaman of Annandale, VA, Roger (Janine) Prillaman of Champaign, and sister-in-law Betty Prillaman of Chillicothe, IL.

He was pre-deceased by his parents, Jay and Cleeta (Smith) Prillaman, and brother Jay "Bob" Prillaman, Jr.

Dan was born Sept. 23, 1947, the third of five sons. He grew up in Rossville and graduated from Rossville High School in 1966. He enlisted in the U.S. Navy immediately after high school and proudly served from July 13, 1966 to July 17, 1970 during the Vietnam War. He served on USS Jenkins DD447, Swift Boat duty with Mekong Delta 23rd River Assault Squadron, USS Soley DD707, and USS Everglades AD24. He was a Navy man at heart his entire life.

crosswords and games that excited his fascinating mind, and eating the bounty grown in his own garden. He was a man with seemingly endless knowledge of history and all things Illinois, and found treasure in unlikely places.

He loved sitting in the sun tossing cookies to fatten up the 147 squirrels who made daily visits to his always-welcoming porch, absolutely anything that meant spending time with his beloved children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, and the peace of camping. He believed in helping family, supporting one's country, honesty, integrity, and loving with the whole heart - the same qualities he always displayed as the simple reflex of a good man. His infectious smile will be forever missed and never forgotten.

The family has asked Beck Memorial Funeral Home of Bloomington, to assist with arrangements. Per Dan's request there will not be a funeral or memorial service. Family and friends may share their condolences and memories online at www.beckmemorial.com.
