HA board approves cafeteria expansion, asbestos abatement

Hoopeston Area's high/middle school complex will get an expanded cafeteria after action taken by the district board Thursday night.

The board approved a quote from Mattoon-based The Upchurch Group for a $1,056,000 addition. The cost includes architectural and engineering fees for the project. Supt. Robert Richardson said a room will be built on north of the gym, which will allow more students to eat lunch at the same time.

In other expenditures, the board approved asbestos abatement for middle school ceiling tiles. IDEAL Envi-

Kicking up some dust

Jim Prather uses a saw to cut concrete on Second Ave. Tuesday morning. Prather, a Hoopeston Street and Alley Department employee, was cutting to even the site out after the street was opened to repair a catch basin leak in June. After fixing the leak, gravel was put on top of the repair to settle before the street was fixed.
