Resident reminders

• Hoopeston's list of trees to be taken down has been posted at www.cityofhoopeston.com. The list is on the main page beneath the cover picture. Residents who have dead/dying trees on city parkways may call city hall, (217) 283-5833, to have trees added to the list.

• The Hoopeston slab is for yard waste only - branches, leaves, grass clippings, etc. Construction and other debris is not allowed.

• Residents are asked to not use the so-called flushable wipes. Despite being labeled "flushable," they do not break down and are clogging city sewers.

• Please do not mow grass into the street. It is a hazard for motorcyclists and bicyclists and can clog city sewers.

Birthday card shower

Former Hoopeston resident Betty Hollen will celebrate her 94th birthday on October 3, 2021 and would enjoy hearing from residents. Cards may be sent to:

Welcome home

Lance Corporal Corey Moore receives a hero's welcome as he arrives in Hoopeston Tuesday night. A surprise welcoming parade was organized by his family, featuring fire trucks and police vehicles. People lined Main St., as Moore made his entrance. Residents waved flags, motorists honked. Hoopeston City Council and those attending stopped their meeting to step outside to welcome him home. Moore, the son of Kevin and Kasey Moore, served in Jordan and most recently at Hamid Karzai Airport in Kabul, Afghanistan, where 13 soldiers died on August 26 in two suicide-bombing attacks.
