Area leaders, representing Casey's General Store, City of Hoopeston, Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce, Hoopeston Retirement Village Foundation, Hoopeston Area schools and Vermilion Advantage gathered Friday for a ceremonial groundbreaking for the new Casey's General Store truck stop at Rtes. 1 and 9. Casey's Region Director Joe Buyno said the company hopes to have the new business open February 10, 2022. An estimated 35 people will be hired for the store. He said no decision has been made about closing one or both of Hoopeston's existing Casey's stores. Pictured are front from left, Carl Ankenbrand, Valarie Hinkle, Michael Kemp, Buyno and Mattie Hudson, all of Casey's, and Lourdine Florek; middle, Beth Knecht, Sandy Lewis, Timothy Dudley, Susan Comstock, Brandi Totheroh, Vanessa From and Nicole Van Hyfte; and back row, Ian Galbreath, Dean Grimes, Harry Brockus and Russ Leigh. Mayor Bill Crusinberry, who has been ill, attended with his wife, Brenda, both watching from their vehicle. Also present was former Vermilion County Clerk Gerald Block, brother-in-law of the late Dick Jones, former owner of part of the property used for the new construction.

Letters to the Editor

HMA thankful for donation

The Hoopeston Multi Agency Service Center would like to thank the Pedro Zarate family for their kind and generous donation to our Food Pantry.

This contribution in Mr. Zarate's memory is such a blessing to our agency and those we serve - we are very honored and blessed to have received a portion of their proceeds from their recent golf outing.

With this gift, we will be able to purchase food for our pantry and continue serving the many families that we assist.

Beth Knecht
Executive Director
Hoopeston Multi Agency
