Veterans Day ceremony

Hoopeston American Legion Honor Guard will present a brief Veterans Day ceremony at 10:30 a.m. Thursday at the Veterans Memorial in McFerren Park.

Following the ceremony, chili will be served at The Legion, 502 E. Main, from 11 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Veterans Day closings

- City of Hoopeston offices will be closed Thursday. Hoopeston Police Department will be open.
- Hoopeston Public Library will not open until noon Thursday in observance of Veterans Day.

Alley cleanup

Next week is the last scheduled week for Hoopeston alley cleanup. Residents are asked to pile yard waste at their alley, or for those who have no alley, at curbside but not in the street.

Cleanup is for yard waste only. Piles with plastic, lumber, landscape materials, concrete or bricks will not be picked up.

Build that wall

With infrastructure and concrete work done, construction workers begin erecting walls for the new Casey's General Store Tuesday morning. Company officials plan to have the new store open on February 10, 2022.

Good news. Rates just got lower.

Tired guys

Several people helped Ald. Kellie Ferrell with last week's used tire drive, collecting tires from residents who were unable to bring them to the McFerren Park Annex Saturday. The collection netted about 570 tires, Ferrell said. Of those, 365 were collected by her, Hoopeston Parks Department employees and her group of volunteers. Collected tires were taken to Danville as part of a larger collection effort. Pictured, from left, are Jeff Keith, Bill Redden, Mila Ferrell and Mike Bane. Not pictured are volunteers Bill and Toby McElhaney.
