Christmas in the Village
Rossville will hold its annual Christmas in the Village event this weekend. A bake sale will be held from 9 a.m.-noon Friday. On Saturday, the parade will kick off at 6 p.m., followed by the lighting of Christmas Park.
After the parade, Rossville Police Department and First Responders Children's Foundation will give out toys at Rossville Village Office, 120 E. Attica.
Bulk garbage day
Bulk garbage day, for Hoopeston residents only, will be held from 7:30-10:30 a.m. Saturday at Hoopeston City Hall parking lot. Residents are limited to one load per bulk day and must unload their own load or bring someone to help.

Dumping of electronics, appliances, paint, liquids, tires, batteries, yard waste, construction/demolition material or anything that fits in the provided blue totes is not allowed. Items from apartments with a dumpster will not be allowed and items from businesses and contractors will not be permitted.

Covid-19 staffing issues closes John Greer until next week

In a notice to families Wednesday evening, Hoopeston Area Supt. Robert Richardson announced John Greer School would be closed Thursday through Wednesday, Dec. 8 due to Covid staffing issues. All other schools will remain open.

John Greer will continue to be used as a shuttle point for Maple students during the shutdown.

The district is developing a plan to provide educational materials and sack lunches to John Greer families. When developed, the plan will be communicated to families, Richardson wrote.

Educational materials and sack lunches will be distributed at 9:30 a.m. Friday at the John Greer bus drive and
