From the Blotter

Thomas Johnson, 37, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 1:36 a.m. to the 200 block of West Maple for a domestic situation. He was charged with aggravated domestic battery and interfering with reporting of domestic battery on a complaint from a 35-year-old woman.

Johnson was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment.

Mobile home

Rossville Family Restaurant's entry into Saturday's Rossville Light Parade makes its way down Rt. 1. The scene included candy canes galore on the fence and house. Lights, wreathes and a glittery deer made the holiday picture complete.

Obituaries

BURCH - Patricia Joan Burch, 84, of Hoopeston, peacefully passed away at 5:37 p.m. Wednesday, December 1, 2021, at her home.

Mrs. Burch, or "Patty," as many knew her, was born April 14, 1937, in Hoopeston, the daughter of Gerald and Alta (Pinnick) Wells.

She married her childhood sweetheart, Floyd L. Burch on January 9, 1954, in Kentland, Ind. They were together until his death on June 2, 2012.

She is survived by her four children- Susan Lambert of Hoopeston, Shellie Moser (Dale) of Hoopeston, Todd (Kimberly) Burch of Hoopeston and Abbie Brewer of Corinth, Tex.; 16 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; sister, Karen Sue (Gerald)

PATRICIA BURCH

Evans of Hoopeston; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, son-in-law, three grandchildren and her sister, Sandy Brown.

Patricia loved Hoopeston. She had fond memories of working for Dr. Cuonzo in Hoopeston, and St. Anthony Catholic Church. She was an entrepreneur and was the owner/operator of the Halo House candy shop, in Hoopeston. She was a member of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, where she was very active in the choir and Altar and Rosary Society. She enjoyed doing ceramics and she was very artistic. She also enjoyed gardening, reading, playing the piano and singing. She had lots of energy and enjoyed working around her house. Most of all, she enjoyed having her family around her and attending family events.

People loved being in the same room with her. She made every gathering special, just by being there and she was the person who never forgot to celebrate the accomplishments of others, however big or small. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her. Her family's consolation is that she passed peacefully from this life, into the arms of her beloved husband and loved ones.

According to her wishes cremation rites will be accorded. Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, December 10, 2021, at Floral Hill Cemetery, with Father Thomas Gibson officiating. The family has entrusted the Blurton Funeral Home to assist them in honoring Patricia's life. Treasured Roots, in Hoopeston, is assisting with floral memorials. Condolences may be shared with the family on her everlasting memorial page at www.BlurtonFuneralHomes.com.

Sports

Basketball

The Paxton Panthers defeated Hoopeston Area 50-41 in basketball action on November 30.

Cornjerker junior Anthony Zamora led scoring with 15 points, followed by senior ben Brown and sophomore Ethan Steiner with eight each. Preston VanDe-Veer added five, with Mason Rush adding three and Owen Root had two.

Brown, Rush and VanDeVeer's totals all included one from the arc.

The Cornjerkers traveled to Clifton Saturday to take on the Comets, losing 55-042.

Zamora again led scoring, with 10, including one for three. Senior Nick Hofer add nine, including two three-fers, with VanDeVeer scored eight.

Brown and Root each hit a three-shot and had five total for the game. Scoring was completed with Steiner's four and Rush with one.

The Cornjerkers were scheduled to host St. Joe-Ogden Tuesday night. The team is currently 1-5 for the season.
