Meeting to focus on strategies for life with strong-willed child

Mark your calendars for the best installment of Building Your Village yet. Our third session will focus on how to work with a strong-willed child.

Kim Kendall, a consultant with the Regional Office of Education, will share tips and strategies for parents to help reduce power struggles and form a collaborative relationship with their child. The ultimate goal is more peace at home. Less arguing is something that was likely on the Christmas lists of all parents with strong-willed children. Come and learn how to make that a reality!

This installment of Building Your Village will be held January 13 at the Hoopeston Multi Agency, 206 S. First Ave.

NEUMANN - On December 29, 2021, Denzil "Denny" Neumann, age 81, was promoted to his heavenly home, because he had received Jesus Christ as his personal Savior at a young age.

Denny is survived by five loving siblings: Rev. J. Doug (Connie) Neumann, Asenath (Wilbert) Brunner, Rev. Philip (Betty) Neumann, David Neumann, Becky Adkins, and many nieces and nephews.

Denny was born on May 19, 1940, in Oak Park, IL, to Rev. Denzil and Maxine Neumann. Denny grew up in a minister's home. As a result, he lived in Chicago, Hoopeston, and Chillicothe IL, Estherville, Iowa, Urbana, and Kankakee. He later returned to Hoopeston where he lived until his death.

Upon graduation from high school, Denny attended Pillsbury Baptist Bible College for one and a half years.

DENNY NEUMANN

Obituaries

He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Hoopeston, where he was very active in the ministry at the church, serving as a Deacon, Sunday School Teacher, and even occasionally preaching.

Denny loved music and was self-taught in playing the Hawaiian Steel Guitar, harmonicas in various keys, pan pipes, melodica, and his most unique instrument, the musical saw. His music was a blessing to many people as he played in several meetings, camps, and churches.

Denny loved to travel across our country. His greatest love was the West. He hiked and rode his bicycle many happy miles, along with tent camping at many a campsite.

Denny's knowledge of the Bible, Nature, Science, and plants, trees, and bugs along with astronomy amazed those who listened to him.

Denny was a humble spiritual giant who served the Lord with a contagious smile and a willing heart. He will be greatly missed by his family and many friends.

Visitation will be held from 9 - 10 a.m.. Tuesday Janu-
