From the Blotter

Joseph C. Cannon, 49, of Hoopeston, was arrested on a complaint from a 15-year-old Hoopeston boy. The youth alleged that Cannon was in his truck and ran over a bicycle laying in a yard in the 600 block of West Elm at 11:40 a.m. Wednesday.

Cannon was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Jason Reyes, 34, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police were called at 10:53 p.m. Wednesday to the 300 block of West Elm for a suspicious person going in yards without permission. He was found at an address at which he was previously accused of trespassing.

He was charged with a state charge of trespassing on a complaint from a 54-year-old Hoopeston man and was released on a notice to appear in Vermilion County Court.

Correction

Due to incorrect information provided to Just the Facts, errors were made in Thursday's issue, in an article about an accident Wednesday on Rt. 1.

According to Vermilion County Coroner Jane McFadden, the two people who died in the accident, Linda Crippen and Jerry Crippin, were 62, not 63. The pair lived in Hoopeston, not Danville, as reported.

Just the Facts regrets the errors.
