Ryan Anderson wins gets back-to-back wins at National Farm Machinery Show tractor pulls

A win in February gave Ryan Anderson back-to-back wins at the National Farm Machinery Show tractor pull in Louisville, Ky. It just took three years to do it.

Anderson and his tractor, ✓'n Out, won the event in 2020. The event was cancelled in 2021, but Anderson and his crew returned this year to again claim the title.

In pulling action February 16, Anderson got second place, then qualified for the finals on February 19. In the finals, he and two other tractors got full pulls, then had to pull again in a pull off, which he won.

Winners are determined by which tractor and driver can pull 60,000 lbs. the farthest distance.

tional Tractor Pulling Association, had a successful season and was the Ring Winner at Bowling Green, Ohio, for the second time. Bowling Green is the largest outdoor championship truck and tractor pull, drawing thousands of spectators and hundreds of pulling vehicles. He also won the NTPA Super Farm points championship at the end of the season.

Some of Anderson's pulls are live streamed and can be seen by logging into NTPApull.com. Replays are aired on RFD TV. Videos, pictures and other information is also available at the Anderson Motorsports Facebook page.

Bulk garbage day

Bulk garbage day, for Hoopeston residents only, will be held from 7:30-10:30 a.m. Saturday at Hoopeston City Hall parking lot. Residents are limited to one load per bulk day and must unload their own load or bring someone to help. Dumping of electronics, appliances, paint, liquids, tires, batteries, yard waste, construction/demolition material or anything that fits in the provided blue totes is not allowed. Items from apartments with a dumpster will not be allowed and items from businesses and contractors will not be permitted.

This will be the only bulk garbage day in April due to the Easter holiday.

Resident reminders

Residents are asked to not pour grease down sinks or toilets or flush flushable wipes, which clog sewers.

With mowing season just around the corner, residents are asked not to mow grass into the street. It is dangerous for motorcycleists and bicyclists and violates city ordinances and state statutes.
