 Hoopeston Police, Hoopeston Fire and Rossville Ambulance all responded to Fortees Apartments, 715 S. Second Ave., after a truck struck the building.

Hoopeston man accidentally hits gas, truck hits building

A 76-year-old Hoopeston man was ticketed after he accidentally pressed the gas pedal in his truck, sending the vehicle into the wall of Fortees Apartments.

Gerald D. Lingenfelter was northbound on First Ave., after turning off of Orange. He made a left turn into the parking spots for the apartment building when he hit the gas, then hit the front of the building, according to police reports.

Lingenfelter was cited for operating an uninsured vehicle and no valid registration.

No injuries were reported. A damage estimate was not available at press time.

In other police news:

Alturo L. Brown, 33, of Calumet City, was arrested after police were called at 5:15 a.m. Wednesday to Parkview Court in the 500 block of South Sixth Ave.

Brown was charged with domestic battery on a complaint from a 47-year-old Hoopeston woman, was processed at the police station, then taken to the Public Safe-
